

Study design: source-aware meta-reproduction separates mechanism evidence from field-wide inference

The workflow first builds a literature sampling frame, then tests executable public cases, then audits which candidates can enter the next reproduction wave.

Abbreviations: LOSO, leave-one-source-out; NMI/NC, Nature Machine Intelligence / Nature Communications. Counts reflect the current v0 audit and are intentionally separated from the manually discovered case-study layer.